Guantanamo, Cuba, to Be Made Impregnable Stronghold
by Uncle Sam.

Washington. January 18.—Several years earnest consideration by the ioint board representing the ranking crystallized into a final decision to regard the eastern extremity of Cuba as the proper defensive outpost for the Panama Canal on the Atlantic side. To day the necessary orders will be given, with the approval of the President and the Secretaries of War and Navy for the preparation of plans which shall make the present naval base at Guan against any hostile force that may seek to apprach the canal from the east Objection Met by Acquisition.

Some disposition has been shown in Congress to question the wisdom of to cating such a defense outside of the Canal Zone proper, or on the American mainfield. With the acquisition of the tract in the rear of the present naval station, which has been arranged for by the ireaty with Cuba, it is felt, how ver, that there disappears the only sound objection that, could have been urged against the creation of a modern Gibraltar at Guantanamo — that is, the difficulty of defending the station from a land attack in the road, supposing a hostile army European to have been landed elsewhere in Cuba.

Therefore orders have been issued for a wish to the maval station of five officers of high rank, representings both services of high rank representing both services

Therefore, orders have been issued for a visit to the naval station of five officers of high rank, representing both services, but with the purpose of finelly approving or amending the elaborate plans of defense which have been prepared by the ioint Board upon data furnished by the ioint Board upon data furnished by the amy and navy war colleges.
